WOMEN'S HOSOLTION CONTURY

In the last contary, the con prevail ing idea of education for women scarce-ly included learning at all. It meant simply and emphasically, the discipline which fits for seelety. Through more than half that period manners were the thing in quastion of plearly there was improve them; for clearly there was everywhere a great fulfing off from what had been, whether in France or England.

We find Mine. de Maintenpa (in 1707) confiding to her friend, the Princess des Ursins, in very plain language, her feelings on this point. If cories to you that the females of the present day are to me insupportable; their ridiculous and immedest dress their snuff, wine, gluttony, coarseness and indolence-are all so opposite to my taste, that it is natural for me to dislike them." The Spectator, at a date two or three years later, remarks upon the same characteristics, and dreads the conclusion of the war for the influence peace may have upon English ladies. "The whole discourse and behavior," he writes. "of the French, is to make the sex more fantastical, or, as they are pleased to term it, more 'awakened' than is con-conient either with virtue or discretion.

sifence more lil-bred than anything that can be spoken." Under this teaching he records the behavior of a fine lady

"That a lady of some quality at a court having accidentally made use of a hard word in a proper place and aronounced it right, the whole assembly was out of countenance for her." - Blackwood's Department, with the regularity of the daily mail, a letter bearing the post mark of an eastern city, and addressed simply "Philip Gregory, Esq," on the envelope, but without any directions to indicate whither it was intended to be ment. These letters were dated with the day of the month and year, beginning, "My own darling Philip," and ending, "Your faithful and affectionate Mary" They were strangely tender, always trustful, never upbraiding. They ever bore the assurance of her faith in his love, and in the belief that he would

THE State Department at Washington is in receipt of information from Sweden, that a company proposes fitting out an exoloring expedition to circums navigate the Continent of Asia. Any information in the possession of this government bearing upon the tides, currents and principal features of the Rearing Sea is asked for, and Admital Rogers, of the Naval Observatory, un der the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, has prepared an clab orate report on the subject, which will be forwarded immediately to Stockbelow for the use of the officers in charge of the expedition. The report contains an interesting review of polar researches of the United States steamer Vincennes in Behring Sea, in 1866, when an open polar current was discovered and followed for a long distance but owing to heavy fogs and pack ice the vessel returned and prosecuted its explorations in more southern latitudes The Swedish expesition will follow the course of the Gulf stream northward in the hopes of reaching the Pacific by Behring Straits

HOW THE POPES SUCCESSOR IS CHOSEN.

The death of Pope Pin, 18 natu ally awakens an inferest, not only with respect to his successor, but is to the mode that his successor is to be chosen, Primitively the pope was chosen by the clergy and the people, but in 1059 Nicholas II vested the choice in the college of cardinals According to Chambers' Cyclopedia, this college provides for a representation of all the an cient electoral bodies-the cardinal bishops representing the bishops of the Roman synod, the cardinal pric to rep resenting the parish clergy, and the cardinal deacons representing the popular electoral districts of Rome

Preparatory to an election the cards nals are shut up in what is called "the conclave," and all outside communication with the world is cut off. A two thirds vote is necessary for a choice oting by proxy is not

There are four modes of choosing pope-by "scrutiny," by 'access,' by "compromise" and by "inspiration"-Twice each day the cardinals deposit in a chalice placed on the altar each a ballot bearing the name of his choose. If there be no choice, the ballots are burned, and the smoke escaping to the outside announces to the waiting popu lace that no election has taken This is called election by "scrutiny If votes be added to any candidate, so as to give him the requisite two thirds it is called election by "areess" amounts to pretty much the same thing as the election of a candidate at one of our American political conventions, by the changing of votes before amounts ment of the ballot, so as to give the higher candidate the requisite number for his nomination. If any two factions, finding they cannot force a choice for their own candidate, join forces and select a pope, it is called election by "compromise. Where there is but one prominent candidate, and he is chosen by acclamation, this is called electron by "inspiration" It was in this way that the deceased Pope Prus IX was chosen

Long usage has rather established the fact that the Pope must be an Ital ian and of mature age After the elec-tion, the fortunate candidate is enthron ed, enters upon the possession of his see, and finally is solemnly crowned -The ceremony of consecration is said to be very splendid and deeply impressive

A FORMER DECATUR PARTOR SURremem.-The Quincy Herald contains a very interesting account of a surprise party in honor of Rev. Horace Reed and wife, formerly of this city. Mr. Reed, who will be remembered as a former pas tor of the First M. E. Church in this city, is now paster of the Vermont Street M E. Church in Quincy, and a testimental of the respect and affection of his people like that described below, must have been very grateful to the feelings of Mr. and Mrs Reed. Below is the account of the affair as given in the Herald .

the affair as given in the Herald:

A meeting of the members of the Vermant Street M. E. Church, was held at the church hast night, upon the call of the ladies of the society, who requested Rev. Horace Read, the pastor, and his wife to be present. There was a large attendance of ladies and gentlemen of the church, and the meeting was a very pleasant event. After the company assembled, Mr. D. L. Masselmus, proprietor of the Gen City Business College, in behalf of the ladies, addressed Mr. and Mrs. Reed, and in the name of the members of the society prename of the members of the society pre-sented Rev Reed and wife with an ele gant allver tilting water pitcher and lib-eral donations of provisions and articles useful and ornamental. The Professor, in tendering the presents made a speech apprepriate to the occasion Hey Reed and Mrs. Reed were taken Hev Reed and Mrs Reed were taken completely by surprise. It may be truly said that the affair was a genuine surprise party for their benefit. Mr. Reed, however, was equal to the occasion, and made an appropriate response, thanking the do now for their kind remembrance. Mrs Reed also spoke, thanking the members of the society for their kindness. The presents were numerous, and were The presents were numerous.

In Wednesday's issue of the Recourt-CAN there was an account of two mea having been driven from Hadler & Co's store at Homent, about two o'clock that enoming, who had offected an entrance by removing a pane of glass from one of the back windows. It is now believed that Charley Marshall and Wheat West were the fellows who went out at the back win dow when the proprietor and other persome went in at the front door.

CHARLEY MARSHALL, who was pesterday committed to jail on account of having stolen goods in his possession, has one hand badly bruised up, which he claims by lumping from a railroad train when in motion. It is suspected that a part of the goods found with Mar shall and West were stolen from a train and that he received the injury named by jumping from the train after throwing the goods off. IN A BAD Fix One of the San man's 'mytha" was in a bad way near the old Hevere house site, last evening, about 7 o'clock. The building which he was holding up did not fall; neither did the man, so far as heard from How long he stood there in the driving stoom to render support to the building, we do not know These who are inclined to pity an unfor twaste fellow in such a fix need expend no "ympathy in this particular case, because the Sun man, who claims to be a very "numerous" chap, was not around, this lear fellow was simply a "myth".

A Journ Hor -- Last night a merry group of young people assembled at the residence of Mr. V. II. Park, on West William street, and danced the happy hours away until 11 o'cleok, when an el egant surper was served, to which the jury pure a high compliment. Music for the occasion, was furnished by Good. man's orchestra. Though the evening was very unpleasant, all in attendance were in a happy mood, and the affair may be rated as among the most agreeable of the kind that has occurred this sensor.

A FORER DECATUR PASTOR SUB-THE Chincy Herald contains a very interesting account of a surprise party in honor of Rev. Horace Reed and wife, formerly of this city Mr. Reed, who will be remembered as a former pastor of the First M E. Church in this city, is now paster of the Vermont Street M E. Church in Quincy, and a testimonial of the respect and affection of his people like that described below, must have been very grateful to the feelings of Mr. and Mrs Reed. Below is the account of the affair as given in the Herald:

the affair as given in the Heraid:

A meeting of the members of the Vermant Street M. E. Church, was held at the church last night, upon the call of the ladies of the society, who requested Rev. Horace Rerd, the pastor, and his wife to be present. There was a large attendance of ladies and gentlemen of the church, and the meeting was a very pleasant event. After the company assembled, Mr. D. L. Masselman, proprietor of the Gem City Business College, in behalf of the ladies, addressed Mr. and Mrs. Reed, and in the addressed Mr. and Mrs. Reed, and in the name of the members of the society pre-sented Rev. Reed and wife with an elegant allver tilting water pitcher and lib-eral donations of provisions and articles useful and ornamental. The Professor, in tendering the presents made a speech apprepriate to the occasion Rev Reed and Mrs Reed were taken completely by surprise. It may be truly said that the affair was a genuine surprise party for their benefit. Mr. Reed, however, was equal to the occasion, and made ever, was equal to the occasion, and made an appropriate response, thanking the do now for their kind remembrance. Mrs. Reed also spoke, thanking the members of the society for their kindness. The presents were numerous, and were appreciated by the worthy recipients.— The occasion was a pleasant one and will long be remembered by those who were present.
